

Innovative Solutions for the Cold Chain

For Immediate Release

April 1, 2021

Glendale Heights, IL - Climate Pros today announced the acquisition of Truetemp Northwest, Inc a leading supplier of refrigeration and HVAC services founded in 1992, proudly serving North West and central Washington.

“True Temp is supported by hard working group of people, led by it’s Founder Butch Havens, who has an impeccable relationship in the industry and their customers, and known for their quality and responsiveness” said Todd Ernest, CEO of Climate Pros. “We are excited to join with Truetemp’s talented team to continue to lead the market in the Pacific Northwest. With this addition to the Climate Pros family, we now expand our service offering in a new region allowing us to better serve our mutual customers. We are super excited to welcome them to our team!”

“After founding and leading Truetemp for nearly 30 years, I am very happy to be providing all the great people here with a stable, solid and secure future with Todd Ernest and Climate Pros,” said Butch Havens, Truetemp’s Founder and President. “I believe Climate Pros is the leader in our industry with their cutting-edge technology and we are pleased to become a part of it.”
